Lord God of Peace, come to our aid! Grant us peace, teach us peace; guide our steps in the way of peace. Open our eyes and our hearts, and give us the courage to say: "Never again war!" "With war everything is lost." Instill in our hearts the courage to take concrete steps to achieve peace.
(Culled from Pope Francis' Prayer for Peace)

The purpose of this conference will be to examine the enduring and pertinent issues of religion, violence and peacebuilding in our world today. It also celebrates 100 years of the end of World War I and the publication of Quod Iam Diu, the Encyclical of Pope Benedict XV "On the Future Peace Conference" that was published on 1 December, 1918. The conference will comprise of keynote addresses and workshops given by scholars from around the world involved in the work of peacebuilding. We trust that the papers and workshops will be accessible both to the academic theologians and broader community including students of theology, philosophy, law, social sciences and international relations, and those interested in the theme of religion, violence and peacebuilding more generally.

Peace is an everlasting challenge that transcends human efforts. It is a gift of God as underlined in Pope Francis' prayer for peace. As an expression of this conviction and inspired by the thoughts of Pope Benedict XV in the aforementioned encyclical, the conference will be interspersed with the opportunity for a multicultural Eucharistic celebration in the Church of St. Francis of Assisi (known for his prayer and ardent desire to be an "instrument of peace") in Louvain-la-Neuve.

PLACE AND DATE

The conference will take place at the Faculty of Theology and Religious Studies, Katholieke Universiteit Leuven on 12 & 14 November (Monday and Wednesday) and at the Faculty of Theology, Université Catholique de Louvain, Louvain-la-Neuve, Belgium, on 13 November (Tuesday), 2018.
